Prague, Czechia
April 9 – 10, 2026

RESTAURANT AND CAFÉ RECOMMENDATIONS CLOSE TO THE CONFERENCE VENUE

(for individual Lunch and Dinner –
Coffee Breaks will be provided for everyone free of charge)

1) Carolinum Buffet, Ovocný trh 3, 116 36 Praha 1

A small and cozy cafeteria located in our university's historic building. It's the perfect spot for a quick snack (salads, baguettes, paninis...) or a full lunch (soups, schnitzel, fried cheese, and other daily specials). You can also order great coffee and something sweet here.

Carolinum Buffet is located at the ground floor near the entrance to the University in the very same building as the conference rooms; if you need help finding your way, please ask our volunteers.

2) Havelská Koruna, 21, 23, Havelská 501, Staré Město, 110 00 Praha 1

- Location: <https://1url.cz/aeNr8>
- Link: <https://www.havelska-koruna.com/>

The restaurant Havelská Koruna specializes in traditional Czech cuisine. The great variety of non-expensive meals offered is unique not only in Prague but in the whole Czech Republic. The customers can choose from at least 40 different meals every day. Daily menu consists of 25 dishes which are mostly part of traditional Czech cooking.

It's a self-service restaurant; at the entrance, you'll receive a order slip where the staff will write down everything you order. A great experience of local Czech-style of having quick lunch or dinner in very specific and picturesque setting, it is located just about 2 minutes walk from the university building.

The free lunch and dinner are unfortunately not offered for the conference participants because of limitations of the project. We do apologize for any inconvenience caused and hope you will enjoy our complimentary refreshments during the coffee breaks. If you have any questions or want any specific recommendations, please ask the Student Volunteers at the Registration Desk (the ones with green badges). They will gladly help you with finding anything, including local vegan and vegetarian restaurants.
